CIRCULATION AT RECORD HIGH

Between last week and this week, 30 new families began receiving regular delivery of the Presto. These are summer residents and most of them receive no other local paper. We welcome these new readers who will receive the Presto for as long as they are here.

In the past year, our year round circulation has increased by 75 copies on Mattapoisett delivery. This is 75 new, permanent families for our biggest one year jump in readers.

ZONING PLAN HEARING

Carlton Burr, chairman of the Mattapoisett Planning Board, served as spokesman at the hearing on the proposed zoning regulation for the town. About 80 people attended the meeting at Mattapoisett Town Hall. Mr. David Young, who worked out the Master Plan of Mattapoisett, attended, as did members of the Planning Board.

After a condensed run through of the proposed law by Mr. Burr, questions were invited from the floor. Mr. Burr was asked about a possible tie-in of the zoning map and master plan maps seen previously. He replied that the master plan maps do not mean anything - except as possible guides for the future. The questioner pointed ou that on master plan maps a business area had been laid out in the north of Mattapoisett but that the proposed zoning map had completely eliminated any provision for business in the north of the town. Mr. Joseph Souza asked if a business could expand without a decision from the Board of Appeals. Mr. Burr explained that a business could expand on land owned by the business but could not buy more land to expand on. Mr. Edmund Valladoa questioned the regulation which would not permit the owner of a business to change the type of business. He said that this would destroy the value of a business property up for sale, since the buyer would have to operate the same type of business as the previous owner. He also named a dozen businesses on Route 6 which are excluded from the business district and asked why such a heavily established business district is now to be classed as a residential zone. He said, "How could I sell my house as a residence if it is surrounded by businesses but in a zone classed residential?' This, he stated, would destroy the value of the property both as a residence and business. Mr.

On village squares throughout the nation, quiet services will renew the constant tie between past service and present purpose. From our honored heros, we will draw anew. Their example of patriotism is the living core of our nation. To cherish and defend the justice and honor so dearly bought is the duty and privilege of our citizens of today. The future belongs to the men who are inspired by the best of the past.

Mr. George Eldridge then asked the question, doesn't limiting business to the area between Main and North Streets on Route 6 put such a premium on that land that anyone wanting business property in Mattapoisett would have to pay an outrageous price, if indeed, any business land was available for sale at all? He said that, "It is not realistic to make Route 6 a residential area." He said that the town must have more area provided for future business in that area (Route 6) which is a natural business district. He stated, also, that more latitude was needed for present business in a non-conforming area.

If the business district is established as laid out, he said, it is "limited to the point of making the purchase of land prohibitive."

Mr. Berthold Putman suggested that the business area could be greatly increased and that by requiring more frontage traffic congestion could be avoided.

Mr. Raymond Winslow stated that Route 6 is the natural place for business. He said, "I'd like to know if the people who drew this map ever saw Mattapoisett except from an airplane." Mr. Burr said that many methods were used, including an airplane. Mr. Winslow replied, "Did the planners walk in these areas? Did the planners walk on Haskell Swamp and Cedar Swamp?" He said that these two swamps were designated prime residential zones (R1) requiring 20,000 sq. ft. lots on some ground that is 12 feet underwater and which he said was too swampy to support a cranberry bog. He said, "Walk off Randall Road and you'll go up to your neck in water. Down in Aucoot, in White Oak Swamp, the hurricane flood water went 4 miles into the woods and the land was 6 feet below the surface of the water. He stated that he wanted to know why these areas were laid out as prime residential zones (R1)." Mr. Burr replied that you "don't have to build houses on zones classed as residential." He said that the planning board hoped that the Conservation Commission would get some of this land (in the swamps).

Mr. Winslow said that the town had spent $22,000.00 for maps to show where you can build houses and that the R1 most restricted areas had the worst conditions.

Mr. Frank Sylvia said that a publicity release put out by the Planning Board (which had run in identical language in all area newspapers) had been built up into a sensational, front page, Boom Town story in one out of town weekly. Mr. Sylvia said that it had attracted promoters for miles around, doing irreparable harm to the town by attracting the very element that the Planning Board claimed they wanted to discourage by the zoning plan.

Mr. John Gibbons suggested that, instead of a 35-foot setback, the regulations read to the average of the street.

Mr. Allan Vaitses inquired, "Why are all the boatyards in residential areas?" Mr. Burr replied, "Boatyards should be on the water." Mr. Vaitses said that he could think of a couple which weren't. He then inquired why there wasn't more provision for light industry.

Mr. Burr said that, "Mattapoisett's future will not depend on industry." He said, "good industry likes to go into areas zoned for them."

It was then remarked, from the floor, that the light industrial area is laid out in the swamp. Mr. George Eldridge said that the zone for light industry was laid out near a recent development of houses (LeBaron Estates) and that it might have an adverse effect on this development.

The Board of Appeals then came into discussion. It was suggested that any adequate Business District, if provided, would prevent a weak Board of Appeals from ruining a residential area. Mr. Frank Martocci said that little stores are a nuisance in a residential area and should be eliminated.

It was asked why lot sizes for apartment houses were laid out so large. Mr. Burr said that it was for drainage and to discourage apartment house construction in order to maintain the character of the town.

It was asked if there was any alternate location for a limited industrial area. Mr. Burr said that they eliminated the area in north Mattapoisett because they didn't know where Route 195 was going through.

The question of business came up again. It was stated that there is no flexibility to change the type of business even slightly to meet a change in demand by customers.

Mr. Charles Crowley said that he favored young people coming into this area and was basically opposed to oversized lots. He said that he wanted to see controls based on the needs of the community and not on the ideas of a master planner with glorified goals in mind.

He asked, "Don't we have some buildable area in town?" He asked why are you demanding a 20,000 foot lot off North Street. Mr. Burr said, "You're an engineer and ought to know better than we. How can you drain a 10,000 foot lot into a swamp?" Mr. Crowley replied, "Yes, I am an engineer and that's why I asked the question." He continued, "You can't - and you can't drain a 20,000 foot lot into a swamp either."

Mr. Raymond Winslow then stated that 20,000 foot was too much land for older people to care for. He said, "The Planning Board is trying to run Mattapoisett." Mr. Paul Kelley stated that 20,000 square feet is not a lot of land and that's why he moved to the country. He said that Mr. Winslow could buy a riding mower on time payments.

Mr. Burr said, "Any house below $25,000. will put your tax rate up."

Mr. Burr then took a straw poll. "How many in favor of reduction of lot size of 12,000 back to 10,000 square feet?" Three voted yes.

"How many in favor of reducing R1 from 20,000 square feet down?" Thirty voted yes. "Is 15,0(square feet too much?" Seventeen voted yes.

Advice in planting raspberry bushes and asparagus plants was given by Joseph Furtado for the agricultural report. Communications were read from the Selectmen's office granting the Grange permission to plant the tree in the park, and from the State lecturer, Marion Johnson, on the Lecturers' Conference to be held at the University of Connecticut August 9-12. TO THE EDITOR:

Buried under Blue Hill #3 is a vast storehouse. In this storehouse the DPW stores paint. Each town in the Commonwealth is allocated two cans - one each of white and yellow. This is used to paint safety lines on highways.

My spies tell me that pandemonium and panic are rampant in this subterranean paintpot. Mattapoisett's paint cans are empty and they know not what to do.

One possible solution would be to have all voters A to M send the DPW a 25¢ can of white paint and all voters N to Z a 25¢ can of yellow paint. This should replenish Mattapoisett's depleted stock and the stalwarts of the DPW could then sally forth and get Mattapoisett's small section of Route 6 painted before Labor Day.

These stalwarts, by the way, are the same fine men we see sweeping and cleaning the highways. They are released from the underground pigment pit once a year for this chore. The

COUPLES CLUB DANCE

The regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Couples Club, held the third Saturday of each month, was omitted in May. In its place the group is having a dance, "The Davey Jones Frolic", with Joe Ponte's orchestra playing for dancing. Refreshments will be served. It is hoped that every member will sell tickets and help make the dance a success both socially and financially. Mr. and Mrs. William Huggard and their decoration committee have outdone themselves, and it will be worth attending just to see the results of their work. Saturday, May 29th, is the date to remember. See you all there! Place: Congregational Church parish hall. Time: 8 o'clock.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

The response to my appeal for a 5 x 8 flag for the Sisters of Love Convent, Main Street, Mattapoisett was indeed wonderful. I do appreciate the thoughtfulness of the many persons who were concerned. The first offer was made a very short time after the Prestos were out, and it has been requested that the gift remain anonymous.

Thank You
Pat Farley.

MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day, May 30, has undergone somewhat of an evolution since its inception in 1869. In that year, General John A. Logan, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, designated May 30th as a day on which the graves of Union soldiers were to be decorated. Over the years the honor was extended first to include the graves of Confederate soldiers, and finally the graves of American soldiers of all our wars. In recent years, Congress has further enlarged the scope of Memorial Day by proclaiming it as a day when the nation shall pray for peace.

The American Legion suggests that you fly the U. S. Flag in remembrance--and rededication! Fly it in pride! Fly it with a new determination that the supreme sacrifices that have gone into the building and preservation of our free Nation shall never have been made in vain.

COUNTY ASSOCIATION MEETING

Walter M. Clark, local Christmas Seal chairman for Mattapoisett, announced that the 42nd annual meeting of the Plymouth County Health Association, Inc. will be held on June 1st at the Hobomock in Pembroke, Mass. The dinner meeting will begin at 6:30 P.M.

Mr. Clark said that directors and friends of the Christmas Seal association are all cordially invited to attend. This year, he pointed out, "we are particularly fortunate to have as the guest speaker of the evening, Alfred L. Frechette, M.D., Commissioner of Public Health for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts."

Those interested in attending the TB annual meeting may contact Mr. Clark or the Plymouth County Health Association, 106 Main Street, Brockton, Mass., Tel. 583-6512.
